JCGCD604 TRACK 13 / 34
THE CENTIPEDE

A centipede will certainly need
 A hundred stripy socks
 But what will he do when he wears them out
 With climbing trees and rocks?
 What will he do when his socks wear through?
 When all of his socks wear out?
 He'll sit in a heap and start to weep
 As his mother begins to shout
 Here's what his mother will shout
 Whenever his socks wear out

I bought you ten, bought you twenty
 Bought you thirty, forty, fifty
 Bought you sixty, seventy, eighty, ninety
 Bought you a hundred socks
 Now off to bed now Sonny do
 You think I'm made of money
 Until I can afford to buy you more
 You can keep your feet right off the floor

A centipede will certainly need
 A hundred purple boots
 But what will he do when his boots wear through
 With wriggling under roots?
 What will he do when his boots wear through?
 When all of his boots wear out?
 He'll sit in a heap and start to weep
 As his father begins to shout
 Here's what his father will shout
 Whenever his boots wear out

I bought you ten, bought you twenty
 Bought you thirty, forty, fifty
 Bought you sixty, seventy, eighty, ninety
 Bought you a hundred boots
 So off to bed now Sonny do
 You think I'm made of money
 Until I can afford to buy you more
 You can keep your feet right off the floor
